Full Stack Developer and DevOps

Juandisay.org
github: @juandisay

Hi, I am juan, i'm active as builder open sources on github and a full stack developer (primarily work as backend with python and NodeJs) and medium level devOps.

But I'm fallin in love with modern FrontEnd like vue, react and cross flatform desktop with Electron javascript.

My current works as part time team lead software engineer on papamana.com, private startups engaged in data scraping, data crawling, microservice, serverless, and ecommerce.
